

RENEE KIM

(604) 349-4822

reneehjkim11@gmail.com

www.linkedin.com/in/reneehjkim

<https://github.com/reneehjk>

<https://reneehjk.github.io/renee-new-website/>

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Computing (Honours), Artificial Intelligence Focus
Dean's Honour List, Queen's University

Graduating April 2026
Kingston, ON

- GPA: 3.53
- Major GPA: 4.09
- Relevant Courses: Data Structures, Object Oriented Programing, System Level Programming, Statistics in R

SKILLS

Languages: Python, Java, C, JavaScript, Bash, SQL, HTML, CSS, R

Frameworks and Libraries: Next.js, React, Node.js Tailwind CSS, PyTorch

Version Control: Git

Design Tools: Figma, Canva

COMPUTING EXPERIENCE

Web Developer Intern, Studiostone Creative

September 2024 – Present

- Worked with the CEO during the creative process of designing their new website using Canva
- Developed the complex website in accordance with the designs using React, Tailwind.css, Shopify and Wordpress
- Researched the best UI/UX practices in order to implement captivating animations

Design Team Member, QMIND

October 2023 – Present

- Deconstructed a neural network using a stacked auto-encoder to study the effects of individual neuron tweaks on outputs (2024 - Present)
- Researched over 10 credible and recent papers to find relevant information in the ethics of AI in business
- Wrote and revised a 2 page research paper detailing the studies pertaining to the topic (2023-2024)

Lead Web Developer, Helping Brains Heal

October 2024 – Present

- Collaborated in a group of 3 to design the website in accordance with the founder's vision using Figma
- Led the development of the website which was created using React, Node.js and Tailwind.css
- Managed weekly meetings with both website developers and the founder

Vice Chair of Marketing, Queen's Women in Computing

April 2023 – Present

- Promoted Queen's Women in Computing through various social media platforms; TikTok, Instagram and LinkedIn and increased engagement by over 400%
- Led the development of the new Queen's Women in Computing website as a Project Manager by facilitating over and leading meetings between the co-chairs and the website developers, providing feedback to the web developers during design stage in order to strengthen our brand image and helping out with various website development tasks (view here: <https://qwic.org/>)
- Collaborated with 8 leading women in technological fields through LinkedIn to gather and present relevant advice for our student audience
- Acted as Project Manager through the design and creation of the club's merchandise
- Managed and guided a team of 7 students to carry out marketing campaigns involving social media, video editing, email blasts, sponsorship packages, graphic design of posters and event promotions

Research Assistant, Queen's University (RISE Lab)

April 2024 – August 2024

- Collaborated in a team of four to evaluate the efficiency of different prompting methods when using LLMs
- Aided in training an AI model using LLaMA that automated the labeling process of the complexity of different prompts
- Researched and presented studies on LLM prompting methods with a focus on user experience

ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

Member:

- Queen's Data Analytics September 2024 - Present
- Casually Cool Dance Crew October 2023 - Present
- Queen's League of Legends Esports Team September 2021 - April 2024
- Queen's Varsity Figure Skating Team September 2022 - April 2023

Interests: Figure Skating, Dancing, Skiing, Anime, Video Games, Website Design, Digital Marketing, Artificial Intelligence

Spoken Languages: English (Native), French (Advanced)